Experience (over 4 years)

Senior Product Designer, TribalScale

Jul 2021 - August 2024

Worked in a fast moving collaborative environment with designers, product managers, engineers and C-suite executives in a transformative agile ecosystem.

UX/UI Designer, Prifina

Dec 2020 - Jul 2021

Prifina empowers a developer and technical audience to leverage their data in new ways. For developers, this means building applications/widgets on the marketplace – for others, this means their secured, privatized data runs on top of those applications to give new value and insights.

What people are saying

Adrianna LeBlanc

Product Designer @ Varicent

“Dave is a wicked team player who always puts his hand up to help out. As a designer, he has an excellent eye for visuals and the know-how to conduct successful user research. Dave's willingness to learn and friendly attitude makes him a great addition to any design team.”

Nick Amirkhani

UX/UI Designer @ Telus

“Working with David on the product design team has been an absolute pleasure. He is a very talented UX/UI designer with a great knowledge surrounding tools like Figma, and visual design practices, and UX research methods. He was always accommodating to my needs and answered any questions I had with a good attitude. He's a team player, inside and outside of the workplace, and any company would be lucky to have him.”
